

Reception Curriculum

"Of course, we can't put our entire focus on the curriculum; much of young children's best learning happens as they play and explore freely. As educators, we should make time and space for that, and judiciously intervene and challenge gently when helpful," Julian Grenier, September 2021.

"It is useful to have a big picture of the learning children need to acquire from their time in the EYFS, but we must also remember the importance of motivation, building on children's interests and learning through play. There is plenty of evidence to support play based learning in the early years...play is at the heart of an effective Early Education," Julian Grenier, September 2022

Respond speedily with the correct sound to graphemes for all 40+ phonemes including (where applicable) sounds for graphemes. Read accurately by blending sounds in unfamiliar words containing GPCs that have been taught. Read common exception words. Read words containing taught GPCs and -ai -oi -ay -oy -all -or and -ur endings. Read other words of more than one syllable that contain taught GPCs. Read words with contractions and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter(s). Read books aloud accurately that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge and that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words. Re-read these books to build up fluency and confidence in word reading. Children should be taught to develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read vocabulary and understanding by listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently being encouraged to link what they read or hear to their own experiences, becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics; recognising and joining in with predictable phrases; learning to appreciate rhymes and poems and to recite some by heart; discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known. Understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher; checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate readings; discussing the significance of the title and events; making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done; predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far; participating in discussions about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say; explaining clearly their understanding of what is read to them.

Count, read and write numbers to 100 in numerals; count in multiples of two, five and ten. Given a number, identify one more and one less. Identify and represent numbers using objects and pictorial representations, including the number line and use the language of equal to, more than/less than (fewer), most/least. Read and write numbers from 1 to 20 in numerals and words. Solve one-step problems involving multiplication and division by calculating the answer using concrete objects/pictorial representations and arrays with the support of the teacher

Numerical Patterns (including spatial reasoning) Compare quantities using language more than, fewer than. Talk about and explore 2D and 3D shapes (for example circles rectangles triangles and cuboids) using informal and mathematical language 'sides', 'corners', 'straight', 'flat', 'round'. Understand position through words alone - for example 'The bag is under the table' - with no pointing. Describe a familiar route. Discuss routes and locations using words like 'in front of' and 'behind'. Make comparisons between objects relating to size, length, weight and capacity. Select shapes appropriately; flat surfaces for building, a triangular prism for a roof etc. Combine shapes to make new ones - an arch is a bigger triangle etc. Talk about and identifies the patterns around them. For example stripes on clothes, designs on rugs and wallpaper. Use informal language like 'pokey', 'spotty', 'blobby' etc. Extend and create ABAB patterns - stick leaf, stick leaf. Notice and correct an error in a repeating pattern. Begin to describe a sequence of events real or fictional using words such as 'first', 'then'.	Match objects. Match pictures and objects. Identify a set. Sort objects to a type. Explore sorting techniques. Creating sorting rules. Compare amounts. Compare size. Compare mass. Compare capacity. Explore simple patterns. They should learn where the people and events they study fit within a chronological framework and identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods. They should use a wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms. They should ask and answer questions, choosing and using parts of stories and other sources to show that they know and understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past and identify different ways in which it is represented. Changes within living memory. Where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life. Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally. The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. Some should be used to compare aspects of life in different periods. They should understand basic subject-specific vocabulary relating to human and physical geography and begin to use geographical skills, including first-hand observations, to enhance their locational awareness. Name and locate the world's seven continents and five oceans. Name, locate and identify characteristics of the four countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom and its surrounding seas. Understand geographical similarities and differences through studying the human and physical geography of a small area of the United Kingdom, and a small area in a contrasting non-European country. Identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom and the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the equator and the North and South Poles. Use basic geographical vocabulary to refer to key physical features, including beach, cliff, coast, forest, hill, mountain, sea, ocean, river, rock, valley, vegetation, season and weather. Use basic geographical vocabulary to refer to key human features, including city, town, village, factory, farm, house, office, port, harbour and shop. Use world maps, atlases and globes to identify the United Kingdom and its countries, as well as the countries, continents and oceans studied at this key stage. Use simple compass directions (North, South, East, West) and locational and directional language to describe the location of features and routes on a map. Use aerial photographs and plan perspectives to recognise landmarks and basic human and physical features; describe a simple map and use and construct basic symbols in a key. Use simple fieldwork and observational skills to study the geography of their school and its grounds and the key human and physical features of its surrounding environment.

		Listen attentively and respond to what they hear with relevant questions comments and actions when being read to and during whole class discussions and small group interactions. Make comments about what they have heard and ask questions to clarify their understanding. Hold conversation when engaged in back-and-forth exchanges with their teacher and peers.	Invert adapt and recount narratives and stories with peers and their teacher. Sing a range of well-known nursery rhymes and songs. Perform songs, rhymes, poems and stories with others and - when appropriate - try to move in time with music.	Hold a pencil effectively in preparation for fluent writing - using the tripod grip in almost all cases. Use a range of small tools including scissors, paint brushes and cutlery. Begin to show accuracy and care when drawing.	Describe their immediate environment using knowledge from observation, discussion, stories, non-fiction texts and maps. Know some similarities and differences between different religious and cultural communities in this country, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class. Explain some similarities and differences between life in this country and life in other countries, drawing on knowledge from stories, non-fiction texts and - when appropriate - maps.	Write recognisable letters, most of which are correctly formed. Spell words by identifying sounds in them and representing the sounds with a letter or letters. Write simple phrases and sentences that can be read by others.	Verbally count beyond 20, recognising the pattern of the counting system. Compare quantities up to 10 in different contexts, recognising when one quantity is greater than, less than or the same as the other quantity. Explore and represent patterns within numbers up to 10, including even and odd, double facts and how quantities can be distributed equally. Year 1: Understand what algorithms are, how they are implemented as programs on digital devices and that programs execute by following precise and unambiguous instructions. Create and debug simple programs. Use logical reasoning to predict the behaviour of simple programs. Use technology purposefully to create, organise, store, manipulate and retrieve digital content. Recognise common uses of information technology beyond school. Use technology safely and respectfully, keeping personal information private; identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about content or contact on the internet or other online technology.
