Key Facts

- It is important to establish boundaries in friendships, with peers, and others
- There may be times where you have to seek and give permission in relationships with friends, peers and adults
- Sometimes people behave differently online, including by pretending to be someone they are not
- By rationing the amount of time you spend online, you can positively impact your physical and mental health

Ask me a question!

- What types of information can you share online?
- How can you stay safe online?
- Are there any types of images that you shouldn't share online?

I will learn the following new words/phrases:

Permission	Allowing someone to do something.
Opinion	A view or judgement formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.
Rules	An instruction which tells you what you are allowed or are not allowed to do.
Declaration	An important spoken or written agreement.

By the end of these topics, I should:

- understand how your online actions can affect others
- be able to name the positive and negative ways you can use technology
- know the risks of sharing images without permission
- understand the types of images that you should and should not post online
- understand how your online activity can affect others
- be able to identify the positives and negatives of using technology
- know who and how to ask for help
- be able to list rules for keeping and staying safe
